

How does it work? (Filter housing)

- The PUREAOX smart filter housing is designed to be attached to the return pipe of heating or cooling systems, specifically targeting furnaces in modern HVAC setups.
- It monitors air quality before and after filtration, allowing for digital measurement of home air quality and filter effectiveness. The installation process is straightforward and can be easily handled by HVAC professionals.